

LICENSING ELIGIBILITY

Before issuing a license to an individual, the individual must present one of the following documents to the municipality indicating that the individual's presence in the United States is authorized under federal law. Please note, presenting a non-expiring form of identification, such as a passport or birth certificate, will permanently establish your citizenship and you will not be required to provide proof in the future.

Check the box next to the document indicating lawful presence.

	An Arizona driver license issued after 1996 or an Arizona non-operating identification license.
	A driver license issued by a state that verifies lawful presence in the United States. (Driver licenses CANNOT be accepted if issued by: HI, IL, NM, UT or WA)
	A birth certificate, a certified copy of your birth certificate or a delayed birth certificate issued in any state, territory or possession of the United States. (See note below)
	A United States certificate of birth abroad.
	A United States passport.
	A foreign passport with a United States visa.
	An I-94 form with a photograph.
	A United States citizenship and immigration services employment authorization document or refugee travel document.
	A United States certificate of naturalization.
	A United States certificate of citizenship.
	A tribal certificate of Indian blood.
	A tribal or bureau of Indian affairs affidavit of birth.

This provision does not apply to an individual, if all of the following apply:

1. The individual is a citizen of a foreign country or, if at the time of application, the individual resides in a foreign country.
2. The benefits that are related to the license do not require the individual to be present in the United States in order to receive those benefits.

Signature of applicant

Date

- A Certified Copy of your Birth Certificate is a legal document obtained from your birth state for a nominal fee. We cannot accept a photocopy of your original birth certificate.